Prague, May 25-27, 2017

Special Guest and Keynote Lecturer

Stephen J. Galli (Stanford, USA)

One session on Friday afternoon is dedicated in honor of Stephen J. Galli's 70th birthday and will feature contributions by Galli's lab members and ex-members.

Invitation

We are pleased to invite you to participate in the 8th International European Mast Cell and Basophil Research Network (EMBRN) meeting, which will be held in Prague, May 25 – 27, 2017.

Marcus Maurer
EMBRN president

Petr Dráber
on behalf of the Local Org. Comm.

Scope of the Meeting

The meeting will cover many topics of mast cell and basophil biology ranging from plasma membrane receptors and molecular mechanisms of cell signaling and exocytosis to understanding inflammatory and other diseases, and pharmacological approaches for the treatment of mast cell and basophil-mediated diseases. Both, basic and translational research in the field will be addressed.

Session Chairs

Ulrich Blank (France)
Petr Dráber (Czech Republic)
Ronit Sagi-Eisenberg (Israel)
Toshiaki Kawakami (USA, Japan)
Marcus Maurer (Germany)
Frank Redegeld (The Netherlands)
Francesca Levi-Schaffer (Israel)
Mindy Tsai (USA)

General Information

Registration

We are proud that we will have no registration fees for EMBRN members and a low registration fee for nonmembers (50 EUR for students and 100 EUR for others). You may become an EMBRN member by registering at <http://www.embrn.eu>.

Young Scientist Grants

We have applied for support of this meeting to CAS and if successful, we will be able to financially support young participants selected for oral presentation of their data.

Location

The meeting will take place in a modern building of the IMG CAS, Prague.
